

COMPANIES TO HELP UPSKILL OUR YOUTH

www.genzemployment.com.au

GEN-Z

Welcome to Gen-Z Employment, a Transition to Work initiative funded by the Australian Government Youth Employment Strategy, Ohana for Youth, trading as Gen-Z Employment, is a local not-for-profit organisation providing youth support, mentoring, employment and training services

www.headspace.org.au/young-people/digital-work-and-study-program/

HEADSPACE// PROGRAMME: DIGITAL WORK AND STUDY SERVICE

Headspace is a national youth mental health foundation. This initiative provides intensive vocational assistance to young people through a digital platform. It focuses on promoting a healthy mental state and connecting with local employers and the workforce.

www.missionaustralia.com.au/

MISSION AUSTRALIA

Mission Australia has several ways of supporting teenagers who are not earning or learning. They offer structured work experience, mentoring and certified training to give them an idea of what employers expect and the skills they need to get a start.

VETEA

www.vetea.org.au

VETEA is a leading vocational training and employment organisation in Australia with a unique concept to offer the training and employment industry. VETEA provides a full career life circle, from school, progressing through vocational education and training into a career or direct to higher education, you can then access employment opportunities and ongoing skills development. It's the pathway to every stage of your future career.

www.tursa.com.au

TURSA

TURSA aims to auspice, manage, develop, and deliver innovative employment and training programmes to assist to alleviate unemployment and under-employment and minimise the marginalisation of these groups, assist them to gain access to the Labour Market, and assist the growth of the human capital necessary to grow and develop commercial and social enterprise.

www.etcltd.com.au

ENTERPRISE & TRAINING COMPANY LTD

Enterprise & Training Company Ltd (ETC) enjoys a reputation as a high-performing, not-for-profit provider of employment, training and business services. MiWe help people in many different situations to overcome their personal challenges and learn the skills they need to find sustainable employment. The service will provide intensive pre-employment support to improve the work-readiness of young people and to help them into work (including apprenticeships and traineeships) or education.